Two plays, "The Pratty House-breaker" and "Nam, the Good for Nathing," will be presented, to be followed by dancing. -The District Commissioners have notified the Belt Line Railroad Company that if they consider E street, between Eleventh and Thirteenth streets, in a dangerous condition to their passengers, there seems to be no resource but to take reasonable precautions to avoid

-Commissioner Phelps had a hearing befere the House District Committee yesterday to advocate legislation which will overcome the troubles between the Commissioners and the Treasury Department concerning the disbursement of money. He proposed that the Commissioners be allowed to transfer from any surplus of one fund to another.

-While Mr. Milton Lambdln was cogaged at work at the Catholic Seminary, on Massa-chusetts avenue, on Monday last, he accident-ally cut himself with a large chisel, which penetrated the right knee joint, inflicting a severe wound. Dr. T. B. Johnson rendered surgical attendance and thinks the wound will heal without permanent injury to the joint.

--Yesterday afternoon, about three o'clock, Officer Shanks arrested a colored man named George Holmes on suspicion of having stelen an overcoat which he had in his possession. Holmes was taken to the Sixth Precinct Station and locked up to await an interview with Judge Snell to day. The overroat, which is brown in color, and had a blue slik handker-chief in one of the pockets, is held at the sta-tion for identification.

-The regular declamatory exercise and reading of compositions at the Franklin Grammar School yesterday were very inter-esting. The prizes were taken in the follow-ing order: Declamations—First, Edwin ing order; Decisinations—First, Lawin Holmes, "Hymn in the Valley of Chamonni;" second, Halbert S. Kerr, "Lave of Country;" third, William Haverly, "The World for Sale," Compositions—First, J. William Thompson, "Babylon;" second, Waiter Stewart, "Carpots;" third, Francis Woodward, "Utah."

The Philharmonic Society.

This society has grown during the present season to national proportions and now numbers nearly 500 members. Dr. Caulfield, its director, and Dr. E. S. Klimball, its assistant director, deserve great credit for perfecting an organization, without compensation, which is destined to do much in cultivating the musica itable to themselves and the community. The society is specially devoted to cratorio and chorus music, and will give a series of grand concerts, commencing January 49, to which "passive members" and their friends will be admitted.

The Coal Dealers! Association. The Coal Dealers' Mutual Protective Association met at Stephenson & Brothers' office last night and completed their organization by the election of the following officers: President, Bolomon Stover; vice-president, Henry A. Clark; treasurer, George L. Sheriff; socretary, C. S. Wood; arbitration committee, W. Ste-phenson, James Frseer, William Gulnard, Thomas B. Penicks, and George W. Bogus. The purpose of the association, as set forth in the constitution, is to promote the general interests of the trade and to cultivate friendly

To further injure her, she complains that in April last the Commodinat transmitted a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, stating that they were excluded because they were improper persons, and the general reputation of the entire family was bad. To further injure the plaintiffs the husband was discingred from the yard, and since has not been permitted to enter there. For these ungentlemanly, overbearing, and mulicious acts she has been lajared in reputation, lost her customors, and claims damages in the amount stated.
